

Bengal & Egyptian Mau Breed Summits

The CFA Board of Directors has granted permission for a Breed Summit at the 2018 GEMS and Bengal Alliance shows.

Special Evaluation class – Bengals and Egyptian Maus only (10 cat limit)– Judge Melanie Morgan. Must enter separately and cat must be entered in regular show. Exhibitors may enter as many as they would like up to the class limit. Class will be at 8:00 a.m. on Sunday. All cats will receive a written evaluation but will not be ranked or scored.

Best of the Best:

The following special breed awards have been approved:

In the 8 AllBreed rings, all Bengal and Egyptian Mau classes (Kittens, Championship and Premiership) will be judged by breed. Judges will hang each class as usual and award breed wins in each category.

They will then award their "Best of the Best" regardless of class as follows:

0-15 entries in each breed: Top three Best of the Best

16-24 entries in each breed: Top four Best of the Best

25 entries or more in each breed: Top five Best of the Best

At the end of the Sunday show, top three in each category in each breed will be awarded based on class judging (ties broken by finals).

And, over all BEST in each breed will be awarded based on the Best of the Best scoring (ties broken by finals).

All Bengals and Egyptian Maus will be benched by breed. Saturday after the show there will be breed workshops in the showhall immediately following the conclusion of judging. Participants will need to sign up in advance (limit of 12 per breed). Contact Tim at tfowlerc@gmail.com to participate.

Saturday evening there will be separate Bengal and Egyptian Mau breed dinners with a breed seminar @ 7:30. All Bengal and Egyptian Mau breeders/exhibitors welcome – reservations required. To make reservations:
